

BONELA MEMBERSHIP

What's it all about?

BONELA is Botswana's only national network of individuals and organisations exclusively concerned with the integration of a legal, ethical, and human rights approach to HIV/AIDS. Its advocacy, litigation, research, education and public awareness programmes touch on all sectors involved in fighting the pandemic—and provide the perfect opportunity for you or your organisation to make an even more effective contribution.

Involved in policy discussion and decision-making at national and international levels, BONELA is in an ideal position to represent your concerns in forums that count. At the same time, the combined experience and expertise of BONELA's members can provide an unparalleled resource for you or your organisation.

In return for these benefits, members are responsible for representing their constituencies to BONELA, and for representing BONELA to their constituencies. They are key players in facilitating discussion and the exchange of information between sectors. They are also expected to attend meetings as required and pay an annual membership fee.

BONELA welcomes membership applications from the legal community, academics, community-based organisations, public and private sectors, concerned individuals and people living with HIV/AIDS. If you are interested in joining our expanding network, simply fill out the attached form and submit it along with your BWP20 membership fee.

We look forward to welcoming you on board!
